1. President's Comments

- President Mamdouh Shoukri extended his appreciation to all members for their dedication and continued work on the CSC. President Shoukri reiterated that the CSC is an advisory body comprised of many members in and around York University who all share a concern for safety. The safety and security of the community is of utmost importance.

2. Introduction of Members

- New and returning members were introduced. Following introductions, President Shoukri encouraged members to continue to be open, frank and to remember that all aspects of safety (not just physical) must be considered within the mandate of the Council.

3. Chair's Remarks

- Pat Bradshaw welcomed all members and provided a review of the mandate, council operations and culture, responsibilities of members and the 2011-2012 meeting schedule. Members were asked to attend all CSC meetings, to send regrets if unable to attend and were reminded of their responsibility to help communicate between the CSC and their respective community groups (e.g. have a report from the CSC as a standing item on their meeting agendas). (see attachment)

4. Election of Student Co-Chair
